

MinMaxx Client Appreciation Awards Ceremony and Free Listing Draw

Sunday April 19, 2009 marked the first Client Appreciation Day for MinMaxx Realty Inc., Brokerage. Milton Mayor Gord Krantz, MinMaxx Staff, Clients and friends gathered at the Holiday Inn in Milton to celebrate the success of MinMaxx Realty Inc., Brokerage.

The MinMaxx team of agents was awarded with the Number One Team in Ontario across all companies based on listings sold in 2008 and Q1 2009. Azim Rizvee, Broker of Record and CEO was awarded with the Number One Agent in Ontario based on listings sold in 2008 and Q1 2009. "This achievement is a result of effective tools and systems, dedicated support staff, committed agents, and of course, our clients' trust in us." Rizvee remarked.

As part of the celebrations MinMaxx recognized a few of their "first" clients. Arshia Khalid was recognized for being the first client to list her home with MinMaxx Realty. MinMaxx Clients Arvind and Mary-Ann Singh and Lennox and Dale Ho were acknowledged for being the first clients to sell and buy their homes respectively. Ahmed Waheed and Sheikh Khair-Un-Nisa were distinguished for being the clients who have referred the most friends and family to MinMaxx and Heather Davis was recognized for being the most frequent MinMaxx Client.

Anthony Davison awarded free listing award valued at $2466.45

The excitement built as Mayor Krantz drew the first name for the free-listing draw. The first winner was Anthony Davison of 8180 Barrett Cres, Niagara Falls. Davison was awarded $2466.45 in commission savings. "I was pleased that my house sold in four days for 100% of asking price by MinMaxx, and even more pleased that I won my listing completely free which amounted to $2466.45." David remarked upon hearing the news.

The contest will continue each month with the next draw taking place on Saturday, May 02, 2009 at 7:00pm at the MinMaxx head office (2-6655 Kitimat Road, Mississauga) where another lucky client will win thousands of dollars in commission savings!
